PARISH NEWS

A Word from the Rector When I was in my curacy at St Clement's, Eglinton there was a particularly extravagant display of Easter flowers one year. One of the more reserved members of the Chancel Guild commented, "It's over the top", to which my dear friend and colleague Canon Cheryl Palmer replied as only she could, "Helen, Easter is over the top!" Today we celebrate the crowning day of the Christian year. "Christ is risen, the Lord is risen indeed". Our generous and merciful God is able to burst the chains of death and with that we have hope beyond measure – hope for abundant life in this life, that earth's ashes are gathered together and transformed into something new, that light shines in the darkness, that new life is possible both in this world and in the world to come. It is "over the top", it does defy logic and it sets our hearts on fire.

We are delighted today to welcome our Area Bishop, the Right Reverend Kevin Robertson with his family. We join together with the clergy, wardens and staff to wish you a very happy Easter.
