Prelude O Mensch Bewein Dein Sunde Gross,

J.S. BACH

(Oh man, bewail your great sins) BWV 622

Please stand as the procession enters. Please kneel with the clergy.

Officiant All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way,

People* and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all.

Officiant Christ the Lord became obedient unto death,

People* even death on a cross.

Officiant Almighty and most merciful Father,

All* We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep, we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, we have offended against thy holy laws, we have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; according to thy promises declared unto all people in Christ Jesu our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

Officiant Let us pray.

Almighty God, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of sinners, and to suffer death upon the cross; who now liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, ever one God, world without end. Amen.

Hymn 537 In the Cross of Christ I Glory

STAINER

Old Testament Lesson: Isaiah 52.13-53.12

Read by The Reverend Jennifer Matthews

Reader: A reading from the prophet Isaiah.

See, my servant shall prosper; he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high. Just as there were many who were astonished at him—so marred was his appearance, beyond human semblance, and his form beyond that of mortals—so he shall startle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths because of him; for that which had not been told them they shall see, and that which they had not heard they shall contemplate. Who has believed what we have heard? And to whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed? For he grew up before him like a young plant, and like a root out of dry ground; he had no form or majesty that we should look at him, nothing in his appearance that we should desire him. He was despised and rejected by others; a man of suffering and acquainted with infirmity; and as one from whom others hide their faces he was despised, and we held him of no account. Surely he has borne our infirmities and carried our diseases; yet we accounted him stricken, struck down by God, and afflicted. But he was wounded for our transgressions, crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the punishment that made us whole, and by his bruises we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have all turned to our own way, and the Lord has laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he did not open his mouth; like a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and like a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he did not open his mouth. By a perversion of justice he was taken away. Who could have imagined his future? For he was cut off from the land of the living, stricken for the transgression of my people. They made his grave with the wicked and his tomb with the rich, although he had done no violence, and there was no deceit in his mouth. Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush him with pain. When you make his life an offering for sin, he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the Lord shall prosper. Out of his anguish he shall see light; he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge. The righteous one, my servant, shall make many righteous, and he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore, I will allot him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out himself to death, and was numbered with the transgressors; yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Reader: The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 22 sung by the choir and congregation.

Cantor My God, my God, why hast thou for-sa-ken me, / and art so far from my help, and from the words of my complaint?

All O my God, I cry in the day-time, but thou hearest not; / and in the night-season al-so I take no rest.

Cantor And thou continuest ho-ly, / O thou wor-ship of Israel.

All Our fathers trusted in thee; / they trusted in thee, and thou didst deliver them.

Cantor They called upon thee, and were sa-ved; / they put their trust in thee, and were not confounded.

All But as for me, I am a worm and no man; /
a very scorn of all, and the outcast of the people.

Cantor All they that see me laugh me to scorn; /
they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads,

All Saying, ‘He trusted in God, that he would deliver him; / let him de-liv-er him, if he de-light-eth in him.’

Cantor But thou art he that took me from the womb; / thou wast my hope, when I hanged yet up-on my mother’s breasts.

All I have been left unto thee ever since I was born; / thou art my God even from my mother’s womb.

Cantor O go not from me, for trouble is hard at hand, / and there is none to help me.

All Many oxen are come a-bout me; / strong bulls of Bashan close me in on every side.

Cantor They gape upon me with their mouths, / as it were a ramping and a roar-ing lion.

All I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; / my heart also in the midst of my body is e-ven like melting wax.

Cantor My strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue cleaveth to my gums, / and thou bringest me in-to the dust of death.

- All* For many dogs are come a-bout me, / and the council of the wicked layeth siege against me.
- Cantor* They pierced my hands and my fěet, I may count all my bones: / they stand staring and look-ing upon me.
- All* They part my garments a-mong them, / and cast lots up-on my vesture.
- Cantor* But be not thou far from me, O Lord; / thou art my succour, haste thee to help me.
- All* Deliver my soul from the sword, / and my life from the power of the dog.
- Cantor* Save me from the Lion's mouth; / thou hast heard me also from among the horns of the wild oxen.
- All* I will declare thy Name unto my breth-ren; / in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.
- Cantor* O praise the Lord, ye that fear him: / magnify him, all ye of the seed of Jacob, and stand in awe of him, all ye seed of Israel.
- All* For he hath not despised nor abhorred the low estate of the poor; / he hath not hid his face from him; but when he called unto him he heard him.
- Cantor* Of thee cometh my praise in the great conger-ga-tion; / my vows will I perform in the sight of them that fear him.
- All* The poor shall eat and be satisfied; they that seek after the Lord shall praise him; / may your heart live for ever.
- Cantor* All the ends of the world shall remember, and be turned unto the Lord; / and all the kindreds of the nations shall wor-ship before him.
- All* For the kingdom is the Lord's / and he is the Governor a-mong the nations.
- Cantor* Surely to him shall all the proud of the earth bow down; / and before him shall kneel all that go down into the dust, and he that cannot keep his soul alive.
- All* Their posterity shall serve him; / it shall be told of the Lord unto a gener-ation yet to come.
- Cantor* They shall declare his right-eousness / unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done it.

Second Lesson: Hebrews 4.14-16, 5.7-9

Read by Cynthia Roosevelt

Reader: A reading from the Epistle to the Hebrews.

Since, then, we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold fast to our confession. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin. Let us therefore approach the throne of grace with boldness, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need. In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him.

Hymn 386 When I Survey the Wondrous Cross

ROCKINGHAM

The Solemn Intercession

Led by the Clergy – Please kneel or be seated

Dear people of God, our heavenly Father sent his Son into the world, not to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved, that all who believe in him might be delivered from the power of sin and death and become heirs with him of eternal life.

Let us pray for the one holy catholic and apostolic Church of Christ throughout the world: for its unity in witness and service, for all bishops and other ministers and the people whom they serve, for Andrew our Archbishop, Kevin our Area Bishop and all the people of this diocese, for all Christians in this community, for those about to be baptized that the Lord will confirm his Church in faith, increase it in love, and preserve it in peace. — Silence —

Almighty and everlasting God, by your Spirit the whole body of your faithful people is governed and sanctified. Receive our supplications and prayers which we offer before you for all members of your holy Church, that in our vocation and ministry we may truly and devoutly serve you; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Let us pray for all nations and peoples of the earth, and for those in authority among them: for Elizabeth our Queen and all the Royal Family, for Justin the Prime Minister and for the government of this country, for Doug, the Premier of this province and the members of the legislature, for John the Mayor of this city and those who serve with him on the city council, for all who serve the common good, that by God's help they may seek justice and truth, and live in peace and concord. — Silence —

Almighty God, kindle, we pray, in every heart the true love of peace, and guide with your wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth, that justice and peace may increase, until the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for all who suffer and are afflicted in body or in mind: for the hungry and homeless, the destitute and the oppressed, and all who suffer persecution or prejudice, for the sick, the wounded, and the handicapped, for those in loneliness, fear, and anguish, for those who face temptation, doubt, and despair, for the sorrowful and bereaved, for prisoners and captives and those in mortal danger, that God in his mercy will comfort and relieve them, and grant them the knowledge of his love, and stir up in us the will and patience to minister to their needs. —

Silence —

Gracious God, the comfort of all who sorrow, the strength of all who suffer, hear the cry of those in misery and need. In their afflictions show them your mercy, and give us, we pray, the strength to serve them, for the sake of him who suffered for us, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us pray for all who have not received the gospel of Christ: for all who have not heard the words of salvation, for all who have lost their faith, for all whose sin has made them indifferent to Christ, for all who actively oppose Christ by word or deed, for all who are enemies of the cross of Christ, and persecutors of his disciples, for all who in the name of Christ have persecuted others, that God will open their hearts to the truth, and lead them to faith and obedience. — Silence —

Merciful God, creator of the peoples of the earth and lover of souls, have compassion on all who do not know you as you are revealed in your Son Jesus Christ. Let your gospel be preached with grace and power to those who have not heard it, turn the hearts of those who resist it, and bring home to your fold those who have gone astray; that there may be one flock under one shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us commit ourselves to God, and pray for the grace of a holy life, that with all who have departed this life and have died in the peace of Christ, and those whose faith is known to God alone, we may be accounted worthy to enter into the fullness of the joy of our Lord, and receive the crown of life in the day of resurrection. — Silence —

O God of unchangeable power and eternal light, look favourably on your whole Church, that wonderful and sacred mystery. By the effectual working of your providence, carry out in tranquillity the plan of salvation. Let the whole world see and know that things which were cast down are being raised up, and things which had grown old are being made new, and that all things are being brought to their perfection by him through whom all things were made, your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Reproaches – Sung by the Choir

T.L VICTORIA
WITH PLAINSONG ARR. GILES BRYANT

Please remaining kneeling as able.

O my people, what have I done unto thee? Or wherein have I wearied thee testify against me?

Because I brought thee forth from the land of Egypt, thou prearest across for thy Saviour.

*Agios o Theos. Holy God. Agios, ischyros. Holy Mighty! Agios, athanatos, eleison imas.
Holy Immortal, have mercy on us.*

Because I led thee through the desert forty years, and fed thee with manna, and brought thee into a land exceeding good thou has prepared a cross for thy saviour.

*Agios o Theos. Holy God. Agios, ischyros. Holy Mighty! Agios, athanatos, eleison imas.
Holy Immortal, have mercy on us.*

What more could I have done that I have not done? I indeed did plant thee, o my vineyard, with goodly clusters, and thou hast become exceeding bitter unto me: for vinegar, mingled with gall, thou didst give me when thirsty, and thou hast pierced the side of thy Saviour.

*Agios o Theos. Holy God. Agios, ischyros. Holy Mighty! Agios, athanatos, eleison imas.
Holy Immortal, have mercy on us.*

Tone I.2

Officiant: We A-dore thee, O Christ, and we bless thee,
People: Because by thy holy cross thou hast redeemed the word.
Officiant: If we have died with him, we shall also live with him; if we endure, we shall also reign with him.
People: We adore thee, O Christ, and we bless thee, because by thy holy cross thou hast redeemed the word.

Officiant: O Saviour of the world, by thy cross and precious blood thou hast re-deemed us.
People: Save us and help us, we humbly be-seech thee, Ö Lörd.

THE CONGREGATION IS INVITED TO COME FORWARD TO THE CROSS FOR A MOMENT OF PRAYER.

Hymn 192 Were You There

SPIRITUAL

Were you there when they crucified my Lord?
Were you there when they crucified my Lord?
Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they crucified my Lord?

Were you there when they nailed him to the tree?
Were you there when they nailed him to the tree?
Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they nailed him to the tree?

Were you there when they pierced him in the side?
Were you there when they pierced him in the side?
Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they pierced him in the side?

Were you there when the sun refused to shine?
Were you there when the sun refused to shine?
Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when the sun refused to shine?

Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?
Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?
Oh, sometimes it causes me to tremble, tremble, tremble.
Were you there when they laid him in the tomb?

Then may be sung:

Hymn 199 Who would ever have believed it?

AE FOND KISS

The Lord's Prayer

Final Prayer

Officiant

Send down thy abundant blessing Lord, upon thy people who have devoutly recalled the death of thy Son, in the sure and certain hope of the resurrection. Grant them pardon; bring them comfort. May their faith grow stronger and their eternal salvation be assured. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

— Silence —

The Cross will remain upon the Altar for those who wish to stay for a time of prayer and devotion.

Please maintain silence while in the church.
