A WORD FROM THE RECTOR

Today we are celebrating St Peter and St Paul the Apostles. Their ministry and witness is remembered together as a feast of the Church because of their crucial role as the first Apostles and in their vigorous spreading the Gospel in the immediate years after Jesus' life on earth. Sadly, Peter and Paul experienced considerable conflict in their own relations with each other and are frozen in a history of antagonism. That said, today's feast bears witness to their witness of the Good News under very difficult circumstances, and that even if their disagreement was not resolved in the realm of human history, their martyrdom unites them in the resurrection victory of Jesus Christ.

With the summer here I hope you will find some time for rest and refreshment. Today the Rev'd Michal Perry is away for the long weekend. He will return on Tuesday.

I will be away on holiday from July 12-26. During that time the Reverend Jennifer Matthews will be Priest-in-Charge. Jennifer will celebrate the services of Holy Communion and with Deacon Michael will oversee the day to day pastoral needs of the parish.

The clergy, wardens and staff join me in wishing you a happy Canada Day Weekend and a wonderful summer.

Geoffrey+

THANK-YOU

Special thanks to Aldene Thomas who generously volunteered her time last week to do a thorough cleaning of the Church.

Thanks so much Aldene!

Thank you

LOOKING AHEAD

About Christmas! It may be only June, but we are starting to think about Christmas! On Saturday, November 30th St Peter and St Simon-the-Apostle will hold a Christmas market. We plan to have jams, jellies, pickles, baked goods and lots of other items for sale. We will also have a raffle for the magnificent quilt parishioner David Snow has made for this purpose. Please mark your calendar and consider what you can make or offer for sale at the market.
