Officiant Almighty and most merciful Father,

All We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep, we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, we have offended against thy holy laws, we have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; according to thy promises declared unto all people in Christ Jesu our Lord. First Lesson Isaiah 58.1-12

Read by Paul Falkner

Reader The first lesson is written in the 58th chapter of the Book of Isaiah, beginning at the 1st verse.

Shout out, do not hold back! Lift up your voice like a trumpet! Announce to my people their rebellion, to the house of Jacob their sins. Yet day after day they seek me and delight to know my ways, as if they were a nation that practiced righteousness and did not forsake the ordinance of their God; they ask of me righteous judgements, they delight to draw near to God. "Why do we fast, but you do not see? Why humble ourselves, but you do not notice?" Look, you serve your own interest on your fast day, and oppress all your workers. Look, you fast only to quarrel and to fight and to strike with a wicked fist. Such fasting as you do today will not make your voice heard on high. Is such the fast that I choose, a day to humble oneself? Is it to bow down the head like a bulrush, and to lie in sackcloth and ashes? Will you call this a fast, a day acceptable to the Lord? Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am. If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. The Lord will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

Second Lesson I Corinthians 2.1-16

Read by Rex Southgate

Reader The second lesson is written in the second chapter of the First Letter of Paul to the Corinthians, beginning at the 1st verse.

Peter began to speak to the Gentiles: "I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ - he is Lord of all.

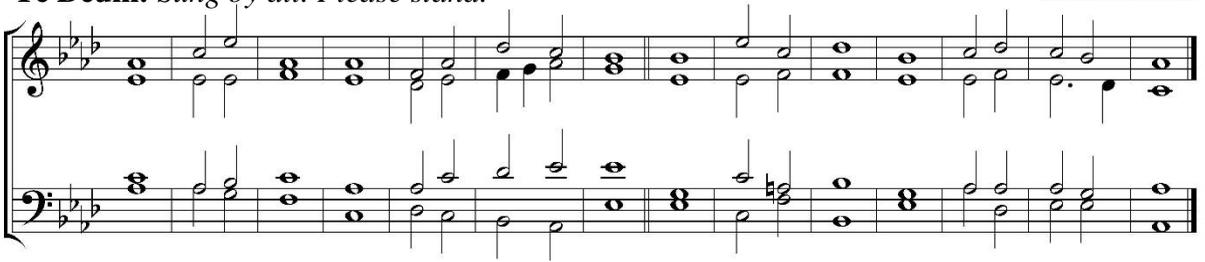

That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name."

Third Lesson Matthew 5.13-20

Read by The Reverend Michael Perry

Reader The third lesson is written in the 5th chapter of the Gospel according to St. Matthew, beginning at the 13th verse.

Jesus said, "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot. You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven. Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfil. For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

Arise, shine, for thy ' light is ' come,
 and the glory of the Lord is ' risen up ' on thee.
 For, behold, the darkness shall ' cover the ' earth,
 and gross ' darkness the ' people.
 But the Lord shall a ' rise up ' on thee,
 and his glory shall be ' seen up ' on thee
 And the Gentiles shall ' come to · thy ' light,
 and kings to the ' brightness · of thy ' rising.
 Thy gates shall be ' open con'tinually;
 they shall not be shut ' day nor ' night.

The sons also of ' them that · af ' flicted thee
 shall come bending ' unto ' thee;
 And all ' they that · des' pised thee
 shall bow themselves down at the ' soles of · thy ' feet.
 And they shall call thee the ' City · of the ' Lord,
 the Zion of the ' Holy One · of ' Israel.
 Violence shall no more be ' heard in · thy ' land,
 wasting nor destruction with ' in thy ' borders.
 But thou shalt call thy ' walls Sal' vation,
 and thy ' gates ' Praise.
 The sun shall be no more thy ' light by ' day,
 neither for brightness shall the moon give ' light un-to ' thee,
 But the Lord shall be unto thee an ever' lasting ' light,
 and thy ' God thy ' glory.
 Glory be to the Father, and ' to the ' Son,
 and to the ' Holy ' Ghost;
 As it was in the beginning, is now, and ' ever ' shall be,
 world without ' end. A ' men.
