Last Post — Silence — Reveille

Officiant O Lord our God, we offer thee this day our prayers and petitions for those who have perished as a result of conflict and the strife of war. We pray for those who have given of themselves willingly and in various ways in the service of others, and for those who have been victimized, innocent casualties of hatred and terror. We pray for those who continue to place themselves in harm's way in order that the world might live in peace. Amen.

Officiant O God, who wouldest fold both heaven and earth in a single peace: let the design of thy great love lighten upon the waste of our wraths and sorrows; and give peace to thy Church, peace among nations, peace in our dwellings, and peace in our hearts; through thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

The National Anthems

*God save our gracious Queen,
long live our noble Queen:
God save the Queen.
Send her victorious,
happy and glorious,
long to reign over us,
God save the Queen.*

*O Canada! Our home and native land!
True patriot love in all thy sons command.
With glowing hearts we see thee rise
the true north, strong and free!
From far and wide O Canada
we stand on guard for thee.
God keep our land glorious and free,
O Canada we stand on guard for thee.
O Canada we stand on guard for thee.*

Invitation to Confession – BCP p. 4

Confession – BCP pp. 4-5

Officiant Almighty and most merciful Father,

All We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep, we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, we have offended against thy holy laws, we have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; according to thy promises declared unto all people in Christ Jesu our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The Absolution – BCP p. 5

Officiant Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness, and live, hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the Absolution and Remission of their sins. He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore we beseech him to grant us true repentance and his Holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy; so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Lord's Prayer – BCP pp. 5-6

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us; And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory, For ever and ever. Amen

Versicles & Responses – BCP p. 6

Officiant O Lord, open thou our lips;

All And our mouth shall show forth thy praise.

Officiant O God, make speed to save us;

All O Lord, make haste to help us. You are invited to stand.

Officiant Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

All As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Officiant Praise ye the Lord;

All The Lord's Name be praised.

The Venite – Psalm 95 said together

O COME, let us sing unto the LORD: / let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation.
Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, / and show ourselves glad in him with psalms.

For the LORD is a great God, / and a great King above all gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the earth: / and the strength of the hills is his also.

The sea is his, and he made it: / and his hands prepared the dry land.

O COME, let us worship, and fall down, / and kneel before the LORD our Maker.

For he is the Lord our God; / and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

TO-DAY, O that ye would hear his voice: / 'Harden not your hearts as in the Provocation, and as in the day of Temptation in the wilderness;

When your fathers tempted me, / proved me, and saw my works.

Forty years long was I grieved with that generation, and said, / "It is a people that do err in their hearts, for they have not known my ways";

Unto whom I swear in my wrath, / that they should not enter into my rest.'

GLORY be to the Father, and to the Son, / and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, / world without end. Amen.

Psalm 78.1-7 Attendite, popule. Please be seatedSung by the cantors

- ¹ HEAR my teaching, O my people: / incline your ears unto the words of my mouth.
² I will open my mouth in a parable; / I will utter dark sayings from of old;
³ Which we have heard and known, / and such as our fathers have told us.
⁴ We will not hide them from their children, but tell them to the generation to come, / even the praises of the Lord, and his might, and his wonderful works that he hath done.
⁵ He made a covenant with Jacob, and gave Israel a law, / which he commanded our forefathers to teach their children;
⁶ That the next generation might know it, / and the children which were yet unborn;
⁷ To the intent that when they rose up, / they might show their children the same;

Hymn O Valiant Hearts, Who to Your Glory Came Cantor

HARRIS

*O valiant hearts, who to your glory came through dust of conflict and through battle flame;
 Tranquil you lie, your knightly virtue proved, your memory hallowed in the land you loved.
 Proudly you gathered, rank on rank, to war, as who had heard God's message from afar;
 All you had hoped for, all you had, you gave, to save mankind-yourselves you scorned to save.
 Splendid you passed, the great surrender made; into the light that nevermore shall fade;
 Deep your contentment in that blest abode, who wait the last clear trumpet-call of God.
 Long years ago, as earth lay dark and still, rose a loud cry upon a lonely hill,
 While in the frailty of our human clay, Christ, our Redeemer, passed the self-same way.
 Still stands his cross from that dread hour to this, like some bright star above the dark abyss;
 Still, through the veil, the Victor's pitying eyes look down to bless our lesser Calvaries.
 These were his servants, in his steps they trod, following through death the martyred Son of God:
 Victor he rose; victorious too shall rise they who have drunk his cup of sacrifice.
 O risen Lord, O Shepherd of our dead, whose cross has bought them and whose staff has led,
 In glorious hope their proud and sorrowing land commits her children to thy gracious hand.*

First Lesson Joshua 24.1-3A, 14-25

Reader The first lesson is written in the 24th chapter of the Book of Joshua, beginning at the 1st verse.

Then Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and summoned the elders, the heads, the judges, and the officers of Israel; and they presented themselves before God. And Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the Lord, the God of Israel: Long ago your ancestors Terah and his sons Abraham and Nahor lived beyond the Euphrates and served other gods. Then I took your father Abraham from beyond the River and led him through all the land of Canaan and made his offspring many. Now therefore revere the Lord, and serve him in sincerity and in faithfulness; put away the gods that your ancestors served beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the Lord. Now if you are unwilling to serve the Lord, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served in the region beyond the River or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you are living; but as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." Then the people answered, "Far be it from us that we should forsake the Lord to serve other gods; for it is the Lord our God who brought us and our ancestors up from the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, and who did those great signs in our sight. He protected us along all the way that we went, and among all the peoples through whom we passed; and the Lord drove out before us all the peoples, the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore we also will serve the Lord, for he is our God." But Joshua said to the people, "You cannot serve the Lord, for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions or your sins. If you forsake the Lord and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you harm, and consume you, after having done you good." And the people said to Joshua, "No, we will serve the Lord!" Then Joshua said to the people, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the Lord, to serve him." And they said, "We are witnesses." He said, "Then put away the foreign gods that are among you, and incline your hearts to the Lord, the God of Israel." The people said to Joshua, "The Lord our God we will serve, and him we will obey." So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made statutes and ordinances for them at Shechem.

Reader The word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Te Deum: Sung by the choir.

We praise thee, O God; we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.
 All the earth doth worship thee, the Father everlasting.
 To thee all Angels cry aloud, the Heavens and all the Powers therein.
 To thee Cherubim and Seraphim continually do cry,
 Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts;

Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty of thy glory.
 The glorious company of the Apostles praise thee;
 The goodly fellowship of the Prophets praise thee;
 The noble army of Martyrs praise thee;
 The holy Church throughout all the world doth acknowledge thee,
 The Father, of an infinite Majesty;
 Thine honourable, true, and only Son;
 Also the Holy Ghost, the Comforter.
 Thou art the King of Glory, O Christ.
 Thou art the everlasting Son of the Father.
 When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man, thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.
 When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death, thou didst open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.
 Thou sittest at the right hand of God, in the glory of the Father.
 We believe that thou shalt come to be our Judge.
 We therefore pray thee, help thy servants, whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.
 Make them to be numbered with thy Saints, in glory everlasting.
 O Lord, save thy people, and bless thine heritage;
 Govern them, and lift them up for ever.
 Day by day we magnify thee;
 And we worship thy Name, ever world without end.
 Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.
 O Lord, have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.
 O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us, as our trust is in thee.
 O Lord, in thee have I trusted: let me never be confounded.

Second Lesson St. Matthew 25.1-13

Reader The third lesson is written in the 25th chapter of the Gospel According to St Matthew, beginning at the 1st verse.

Jesus said, "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them; but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a shout, 'Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise replied, 'No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.' And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet; and the door was shut. Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us.' But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.' Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

Reader The word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Jubilate Deo Said by all. Please stand.

¹ O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:
serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

² Be ye sure that the Lord he is God;
* it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, ' and the sheep of his pasture.

³ O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise;
* be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.

⁴ For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting;
* and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ' ever ' shall be,
* world without end. Amen.

Anthem So They Gave Their Bodies

PETER ASTON

Homily The Reverend Michael Perry

Hymn 528 O God, Our Help in Ages Past

ST. ANNE

Choir

*O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home:*

*Under the shadow of thy throne thy saints have dwelt secure;
sufficient is thine arm alone, and our defence is sure.*

Before the hills in order stood, or earth received its frame, from everlasting thou art God, to endless years the same.

A thousand ages in thy sight are like an evening gone, short as the watch that ends the night before the rising sun.

*Time like an ever-rolling stream bears all our years away;
they fly forgotten, as a dream dies at the opening day.*

*O God, our help in ages past, our hope for years to come,
be thou our guard while troubles last, and our eternal home.*

Prayers

General Thanksgiving – BCP pp. 13-14

Officiant O God, the Creator and Preserver of all, we humbly beseech thee for all sorts and conditions of men; that thou wouldest be pleased to make thy ways known unto them, thy saving health unto all nations. More especially we pray for the good estate of the Catholic Church; that it may be so guided and governed by thy good Spirit, that all who profess and call themselves Christians may be led into the way of truth, and hold the faith in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Finally we commend to thy fatherly goodness all those, who are any ways afflicted or distressed in mind, body, or estate; that it may please thee to comfort and relieve them, according to their several necessities, giving them patience under their sufferings, and a happy issue out of all their afflictions. And this we beg for Jesus Christ his sake. Amen.

Officiant Almighty God,

All Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all people. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

Prayer of St Chrysostom

Officiant Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name thou wilt grant their requests: Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting.

Amen.

The Grace

All The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore. Amen.
