A Word from the Rector

The ministry of anointing and laying on of hands is being administered today during the Choral Eucharist. This was a long-standing practice at St Peter's, Carleton Street and one of the gifts that came with our amalgamated parish in 2016. This ministry is based on Jesus' constant concern and care for the sick. We inherit it from scripture and from the ancient Church where it was an extension of the basic act of worship centred in the Word and the bread and wine. Anointing and laying on of hands with prayer is an outward and visible sign of the grace and mercy of God, that we may know God's loving presence in our pain and the healing he brings. We give thanks for gift of medicine, for doctors, nurses and caregivers, and for our lay anointers who are commissioned by the Bishop for this healing ministry.

We have a new musical version of the Lord's Prayer today, set to a Byzantine tone. I experienced this at the Sunday Choral Eucharist at Winchester Cathedral last October and found it very beautiful. I hope you do also.

This afternoon at 4.00 pm is the Ordination to the Priesthood of Jillian Ruch at St Bride's, Clarkson. I am honoured to be one of her clergy presenters.

Many thanks to all who participated in our Vestry Meeting last Sunday.
