A Word from the Rector

Today is the eight anniversary of our parish amalgamation and we are delighted to welcome our friend and Bishop, the Right Reverend Kevin Roberston who is our Celebrant and Preacher today. Please join us with Bishop Kevin for a special reception in the Parish Hall after the service. This afternoon at 4 pm we will commemorate “All Souls” with the Fauré Requiem. This solemn and beautiful service for the faithful departed is an ancient rite of the Church, a recognition that all life is from God and returns to God, and through the Paschal victory of Jesus Christ, we look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. We give particular thanks today for those who in times past have served the Church faithfully, especially at St

Peter's and St Simon's, and we pray for the strength and grace to follow in their faithful steps as we move courageously into God's future. A blessed All Saints-tide to you all.
