

FRIDGE NOTES: Parish Announcements All Saints' Sunday - November 2, 2025

Welcome to St Peter and St Simon's, especially if you are visiting us.

Please join us for refreshments in the Parish hall following the 10.30 am service.

Stewardship at SPSS

Ministry at SPSS provides support, comfort and hope to many people - this includes those who are parishioners and people in the community who may not attend services weekly, but see us as the local parish church, a good place that seeks to share God's love.

We are at a time when a renewed focus on stewardship is a priority. We are not keeping up with operations expenses even with spending restraints. Our ministry relies on your generosity. We ask each parishioner to please review your financial commitment. Many of us give through PAG (Pre-Authroized Giving) – remember to inform the office of changes to your contributions. Each of us has an important role to keep our parish sustainable and strong. Giving is an act of worship and a response to the generosity of God. Please consider prayerfully how your financial support may be increased. This will enable us to meet rising costs and fulfil our ministry needs. We are grateful for your generosity.

Today we celebrate All Saints Day, celebrating and giving thanks for the faith and witness of those who have gone before us. At 4 pm today there will be a sung Requiem Eucharist in Commemoration of All Souls. Geoffrey+

Hymn Notes For All the Saints (CP #276)

Born in Shrewsbury, William Walsham How (1823-97) graduated from Oxford and was ordained in 1847. He served as rector of Whittington (1851-65) before becoming the chaplain of the Anglican Church in Rome (1865-79). Though he had previously refused two bishoprics, How was made Suffragan Bishop of East London (Bishop of Bedford) in 1879. In 1888, he became Bishop of Wakefield. Known for his dynamic leadership in work among the poor in East London, he was called “The Poor Man’s Bishop.” On his pastoral staff he had the words of St. Bernard: Feed with the word; feed with the life. How wrote 54 hymns. He stated that a good hymn should be simple, real, earnest, and reverent. This hymn – the most popular for saints’ days – was written in 1858 and published in 1864.

Ralph Vaughan Williams composed SINE NOMINE to accompany How's words for The English Hymnal (1906). In 1897, How wrote the National Hymn for Queen Victoria's Jubilee: O King of Kings, whose reign of old.
